Dear Steve,

How are you? On behalf of the whole class, I'd like to invite you to join us in picnic. We have also invited Prof. Chen and Ms. Zhou whom you are familiar with. The weather forecast reports that it will be sunny next Sunday, so we decide to have the picnic on that day at Chaoyang Park. There is no dress code, just in casual. The theme of this picnic is competition of self-made food, just for fun. So, please bring some food that you made by yourself. If you can come, we can pick you up at 8 a.m. at our school gate. We are looking forward to your response. I hope you can come!

Cheers,

Li Yuan

Dear Jason,

I am a high school student and now I am going to take the College Entrance Exam. I am writing to you about my difficulties in learning English. In fact, I do well in other subjects, but English is my headache. I can't remember the new words and expressions I learned in class, and I often make a lot of mistakes in multiple choices and can't understand the articles fully because of my poor vocabulary. What's worse, I have trouble in listening to English. I totally can't understand what those people are talking in English. What should I do? I hope you can give me some suggestions. Looking forward to your reply.

Yours,

Li Yuan

Notice

Fellow students,

we are going to visit the Museum of History this weekend. We will meet at the school gate at eight on Saturday morning and we will go there by bus. Remember to take your notebooks. We should listen and watch carefully and write down something important when we visit the museum.

There are a couple of things you should know. Please don't make any noise in the museum and don't take any pictures. Foods and drinks are not allowed in the museum. At last, you will have to hand in a report about the visit next Friday.

Thank you.

Dear Tim,

Last weekend we went to the countryside to have a barbecue. We took chicken, beef and some vegetable. Of course we didn't forget to take some fruits and drinks.

We left home quite early in order to avoid the traffic jam. It took us two hours to come to a nice place near a river. Then we began our rich picnic, eating, talking, smiling and singing. We had a happy time. After having barbecue, we played a game called truth or dare. It was very interesting, and we didn't come back home until the night fell.

I am looking forward to your reply.

Your sincerely,

Li Yuan

Dear Jing,

Long time no see. I heard that you are looking for a part-time job on campus. So, I am writing this letter to let you know that there is an open position currently.

The information of the job offer is on campus website. It says five to ten new part-time workers are needed in the library. The job seems quite suitable for you, I think. It's required that applicants should be students of our university and should be able to work on weekends.

The time for interview is on Dec.10a.m. to 4p.m. at the library lobby.

Jing, it is really a great chance. Go ahead! I am looking forward to good news from you.

Cheers,

Li Hua

Dear Thomas,

I'm glad to hear from you. I sincerely welcome you to study in China. I want to recommend a university to you.

I recommend Peking University and it's in Beijing. Peking University has many professors with knowledge, and its Chinese department is very good. Beijing is the capital of China and the center of politics, economy and culture. Beijing is also the most developed city in China, with convenient transportation and friendly people.

If you need more help, I'll be happy to help you.

Best wishes to you!

Yours,
